Busan City to Select Outstanding Tourism Companies to Enter Busan Tourism Enterprise Support Center

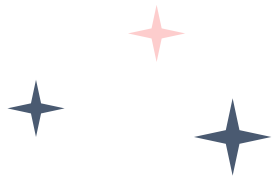

"As Busan Tourism Business Support Center is the first project in the country, the interest level was high, and we tried to support the companies as much as possible by providing the best support to the best companies," said a Busan city official said. We will make further efforts to help companies that have moved into the center grow into companies that can represent Busan in the future, and we will start with the opening ceremony in early September and become a space for tourism companies in the Busan area," he said, expressing his willingness to actively support the companies.
